Entertainment At Baptist Church

The entertainment given at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Ladies Aid, was quite a success. The readings, essays, and vocal solos were well rendered.

Mr. Allen appropriately gave the opening address, addressing a few words in honor of the ladies work which was followed by a prayer from the pastor, Bro. Clouse. The first reading was given by Mary Lou Graham. Miss John's readings were especially appreciated as were also the readings given by Miss Grace Love and Miss Ethel Caudill.

The vocal solos rendered by Bro. Cunningham and Miss Newma Shepard were splendid, and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Barr, Miss Newma Shepard, Mr. Creighton and Mr. Allen, gave a nice quartette, and a duet given by Miss Thomas and Ruth Graham was very much enjoyed. Music rendered by Miss Thomas and Mr. Murphy was very much appreciated.

We wish to thank them very much for their assistance, and we also appreciate Mr. Creighton's kindness in helping us in many ways. A Member.

Another Wedding

We learned Wednesday of this week that more wedding bells were ringing north of town. When early last Monday morning C. L. Cox who lives near the 80 ranch took for his bride to be, Miss Bell Dunham and in company with her father left for Plains, Texas, where they were to be married. C. L. Cox is a brother to J. R. Cox living north of Lovington and Miss Dunham is a daughter of M. M. Dunham living north of town also. The couple will likely make their home on Mr. Cox's place near the 80 ranch.
